MAE HONG SON

Mae Hong Son is a picturesque, mountainous northern province bordering Myanmar to the west and the north, where hilltribes, Burmese-style temples, rugged mountains, waterfalls, caves and pristine forests lend the province much of its unspoiled charm.

Mae Hong Son province covers an area of 14,244 sq. kms., and is administratively divided into 6 districts, and 1 subdistrict namely: Muang, Mae Sa Rieng, Mae La Noi, Pai, Khun Yuam, Sop Moei and Pang Ma Pa Subdistrict. Mae Hong Son province can be reached from Chiang Mai either by Highway No.108 via Mae Sa Rieng, or Highway No.1095 via Pai which shortens the distance to some 274 kilometres.

CITY ATTRACTIONS AND NEARBY ATTRACTIONS

Numerous Burmese-style temples can be seen. These include the hilltop Wat Phra That Doi Kong Mu (วัดพระธาตุดอยกองมู) which dominates the provincial city. Constructed by Phaya Singhanatracha, the first King of Mae Hong Son, the hilltop temple affords a wonderful view of the city and surrounding mountains and valleys.

Wat Hua Wiang (วัดหัวเวียง) contains the image of Phra Chao Pha Ra La Khaeng (พระเจ้าพาราละแซ่ง), a replica of one in Myanmar.

Wat Chong Klang (วัดจองกลาง) Wat Chong Khum (วัดจองคำ) houses glass paintings and woodcarvings brought from Myanmar some 100 years ago.

Wat Phra Non (วัดพระนอน) contains a huge Burmese-style Reclining Buddha image some 12 metres long. The temple also houses ashes of Mae Hong Son kings. Two massive stone lions guard the temple staircase.

Wat Kam Ko (วัดกำก่อ) Another name of this wat is Wat Dok Bun Nag which is shady and pleasant having ancient scriptures written in the ancient local dialect informing the history of Thai Yai people.

Pha Bong Dam (เขื่อนผลิตไฟฟ้าพลังน้ำผาบ่อง), about 12 kilometres outside Mae Hong Son, has been constructed across the Mae Ra Mat River for generating electrical power.

Nearby is the Pha Bong Spring (บ่อน้ำร้อนผาบ่อง)

Pong Daeng Royal Residence (เรือนประทับแรมโป่งแดง) is located within the Pong Daeng

Development Project Center, some 4 kilometers to the South of the provincial city. Experimental plant growing and silk worm feeding are performed there under the royal initiation. A 2-kilometer left turn leads to the Royal Residence surrounded by a variety of beautiful plants and flowers on a hill overlooking Pai River.

Ban Nam Phiang Din (บ้านน้ำเพียงดิน) is a destination in Tambon Pha Bong of 2-hour long motor boat trip or 1-day rafting along Pai River via Ban Huai Dua, a scenic route with marvellous terraced cataracts. Not too far beyond Ban Nam Phiang Din, within Myanmar territory, lies another frequented tourist destination known as "Pha Hom Nam" (ผาหม่นน้ำ).

Long-Necked Karen (Pa Dong tribe) (กะเหรี่ยงคอยาวหรือชนเผ่าปาดอง) a hill-tribe inhabiting an area in Myanmar territory which shares border with Thailand's Ban Nam Phiang Din. Pa Dong people are farmers of rice, tea, and tobacco. Most of them believe in spirits and Buddhism. On their necks and limbs, Pa Dong women wear brass rings of which the number will increase when they get more aged. A stack of rings, one above another, makes a woman's neck seem elongated. However, a medical examination by the use of X-ray reveals a normal length of the neck bones but an unusually low of the collarbones which had been pressed by the rings.

Pha Sua Waterfall (น้ำตกผาเสื่อ) is located in Forest Park of the same name. At Km. 18, a laterite road branches off for about 10 kilometres to the park. The 7-metre cataract is huge and picturesque. The best time to visit the falls is between early August and late September.

About 35 kilometres further up the track to Pha Sua Waterfall lie Pang Tong Palace (พระตำหนักปางตอง) and a peaceful Meo Tribal Village (หมู่บ้านชาวเมี้ยว) near the border of Thailand and Myanmar.

Tham Pla Forest Park (วนอุทยานถ้ำปลา) is situated at Ban Huai Pha, 17 kms. from Mae Hong Son township area on Highway No. 1095 to Amphoe Pai. The area is dotted with reservoirs having a lot of fishes and the surrounding is of beautiful nature.

ATTRACTIONS ALONG HIGHWAY NO. 108

➤ ATTRACTIONS IN AMPHOE KHUN YUAM

Wat To Phae (วัดตอแพ) is located 7 kms. from Khun Yuam Market having a large beautiful Burmese style vihara. According to the legend, it is said that raft assembling people used to gather up in this area prior to making a teak trees raft trip to the marketing places. They, then, combined their efforts to build the Wat and called Wat To Phae... 'Raft Assembling Monastery'.

Wat Muai To (วัดม่วยตอ) in Ban Khun Yuam houses a huge and beautiful northern-style pagoda.

Mae Surin Waterfall (น้ำตกแม่สุริน) is located in Nam Tok Mae Surin National Park (อุทยานแห่งชาติน้ำตกแม่สุริน) at km. 220 on Highway No. 108, 30 kilometres from Amphoe Khun Yuam. It is believed to be the highest fall of Thailand.

Wild-Sunflower Field, Doi Mae U-Kho (ดอยบัวตองดอยแม่อูคอ) is located in Ban Mae Surin, Tambon Mae Yuam Noi, covers an area of 1,000 rais of Wild-Sunflowers, all are in full bloom during November which make the hills and surrounding areas look like plated with gold.

Nong Haeng Hot Spring (บ่อน้ำร้อนหนองแห้ง) is in the area of Ban Nong Haeng, Tambon Muang Pon, about 15 kilometers from the district.

➤ ATTRACTIONS IN AMPHOE MAE LA NOI

Two interesting caves along Highway 108 are Mae Hu Cave (ถ้ำแม่หุ) at Km. 108, and Mae La Ka Cave (ถ้ำแม่ละกา) between Amphoe Khun Yuam and Amphoe Mae La Noi.

In the vicinity are Mae Hu and Mae La Ka Hot Springs (บ่อน้ำร้อนแม่หุและแม่ละกา). Both have water hot enough to boil eggs.

Mae La-up Lawa Village (หมู่บ้านละว้าแม่ละอุบ) in Tambon Huai Hom is situated in the area where three districts meet : Mae Chaem, Mae La Noi and Mae Sariang of Mae Hong Son Province. The culture, architecture, costumes and charecter of the hilltribes here are different from other hilltribes in Thailand. The attraction of this village is its hilltop location with beautiful view. Visitors can easily go to the village for it is about 32 kilometers from the district.

Huai Hom Karen Village (บ้านกะเหรี่ยงห้วยหอม) is about 4 kilometres from Ban La-up. Its villagers adhere to their religion and have gentle and polite manners. As the hilltribe community development center is established in the village, the villagers have been taught to make clothes from wool and how to grow fruits and other plants of temperate climate. Therefore, this village is a good model for other hill tribes.

Mae Sa-kua Karen Village (บ้านกะเหรี่ยงแม่สะกัวะ) in Tambon Tha Pha Phum is about 13 kilometers from the district. Houses here are remarkably built along the slopes of the mountains. During dry season, visitors can appreciate the beautiful scenery when wild flowers and foliage turn to orange colour. Near the village, there are waterfalls good for relaxation. The villagers still live in traditional way and no many changes are apparent.

➤ ATTRACTIONS IN AMPHOE MAE SARIANG

Wat Kitti Wong (วัดกิตติวงศ์) is another temple worth visiting. It houses Lord Buddha relics brought from Chiang Mai, and manuscripts discovered in Phra Daeng Cave recounting the history of relations between Myanmar and the Lanna kingdom.

Wat Uttayanrom (วัดอุทยานรมณ์) is called by the local people as Wat Chong Sung built in Burmese artistic style having two white pagodas of Mon style architecture and one Burmese style Vihara which is very beautiful.

Wat Sri Bun Ruang, (วัดศรีบุญเรือง) located near Wat Chong Sung, is one of monasteries with attractions such as a Burmese-styled main temple decorated with gingerbread design.

Wat Saen Thong (วัดแสนทอง) is situated in Amphoe Mae Sariang. An important attraction is an old and beautiful bronze image of the Buddha Subduing Mara of Chiang Saen period. Phra Buddha Si-Hing, known as Phra Phet or Phra Sing Nung, is another image of Buddha to which the people have paid respect since the old days.

Pha Ma Lo Karen Village (หมู่บ้านกะเหรี่ยงพะมะลอ) is a large Karen Village, located 3 kms. from the market place, where hand woven fabric are produced for sale at a cheap price. A single virgin of this village wears a white dress.

The Tribal Development & Assistance Centre (ศูนย์พัฒนาและสงเคราะห์ชาวเขา) at Km. 84 on Doi Mae Ho (ดอยแม่เหาะ) is administered by the Public Welfare Department. Most of the hilltribe people in this centre are of Karen ancestry. The scenic area is noted for colourful flower plantations. Bua Tong or wild sunflowers bloom covering the entire valley during November every year.

➤ ATTRACTION IN AMPHOE SOP MOEI

Mae Sam Laep (แม่สามแลบ) is a village on Salawin River, located in Tamboon Sop Moei, some 62 kilometres from Amphoe Sop Moei on the Highway 1085. It is a renowned attraction among visitors for its rafting along the Salawin River. The village is situated within a deep valley facing Myanmar with white sandy beach on some parts of the bank. Two stretches of the river which is mostly rafted are between Mae Sam Laep and Sop Moie, the point at which Moei River meets Salawin River, and from Mae Sam Laep to Amphoe Tha Song Yang, of Tak Province.

ATTRACTIONS ALONG HIGHWAY NO. 1095

➤ ATTRACTIONS IN PANG MA PA SUBDISTRICT

Tham Lot Forest Park (วนอุทยานถ้ำลอด) some 60 kilometres from Mae Hong Son town, a laterite road to the left runs a further 8 kilometres. It is a place where antiques and pre-historic remains were found. This huge cave is beautifully decorated with colourful stalagmites and stalactites.

Lisu Tribal Village at Pang Paek (หมู่บ้านลีซอปางเป็ก) is another tribal village worth visiting, located some 30 kilometres before reaching Amphoe Pai.

➤ ATTRACTIONS IN AMPHOE PAI

Wat Nam Hu (วัดน้ำฮู) about 3 kilometres from Pai Market contains a sacred Chiang Saen Buddha image, 24 inches wide at the base and 30 inches high. The image's topknot can be opened. Inside is holy water, revered by local folk.

Wat Klang (วัดกลาง) is in Tambon Wiang Tai. In the precincts of this temple, a main Chedi of Thai Yai style stands in the center of the temple yard, surrounded by Mon Chedies below which Buddha images of the seven days of a week are put in niches. A finial-topped Mandapa was also built on the base of the main Chedi.

Mae Ping Karen Village (หมู่บ้านกะเหรี่ยงแม่ปิง) is located in Mu 4, Tambon Mae Hi. The Karens here have their own alphabets and are highly civilized. Travelling can be made by car.

Chedi Phra That Mae Yen (เจดีย์พระธาตุแม่เย็น) in Ban Mae Yen, Tambon Mae Hi, which no one can tell when it was built, is located on a hill from where visitors overlook the whole Amphoe Pai after paying tribute to the shrine. Travellers by air take this chedi as a marker of Pai district area.

Mae Yen Waterfall (น้ำตกแม่เย็น) is situated in Ban Mae Yen, Tambon Mae Hi, about 30 kilometres from Amphoe Pai. It is a three-tiered waterfall and one of the most beautiful waterfall in the district. It takes visitors 3-5 hours to get to this waterfall on foot.

Mo Paeng Waterfall (น้ำตกหมอแปง) is located 9 kilometres from Amphoe Pai and can be reached conveniently by car. The surrounding area is shady and beautiful. Nearby are Muang Soi Waterfall (น้ำตกม่วงสร้อย) and a peaceful Muser tribe village.

Huai Nam Dang (ห้วยน้ำดัง) is the location of the Royal Forestry Department's Royal Water Sources Development Project at Mu 7, Tambon Wiang Nua. The area, stretching out as far as Amphoe Mae Taeng, of Changwat Chiang Mai Province, is planted with flowers and trees of cold weather zone which contribute to its scenic landscape.

There are hot springs located in Amphoe Pai area, named Muang Paeng Hot Spring (น้ำพุร้อนเมืองแปง), in Tambon Muang Paeng, Pong Ron Hot Spring (น้ำพุร้อนโป่งร้อน) in Tambon Mae Hi and Pong Duat Hot Spring (บ่อน้ำร้อนโป่งเดือด) in Tambon Tung Yao.

☞ RAFTING ALONG PAI RIVER

With its approximately length of 180 kms, 30 metres width and 7 metres depth, the Pai River is the biggest and longest river in Mae Hong Son. This challenges the adventurous lover to raft along this river and three most suitable points are recommended. They are :

1. Source of the River to Amphoe Pai : Starting from Huai Chang Kaeo, 16 kms. from Amphoe Pai to Wiang Nua Bridge or Ban Chomphon near Amphoe Pai, taking about 6 hours. Most suitable time to raft is between October - March, and 2 weeks prior contact for the raft is recommended through the travel agents in Mae Hong Son or Pai.

2. From Amphoe Pai to Amphoe Muang : Starting from Ban Mo Paeng, 30 kms. from Amphoe Pai to Ban Pang Mu in Amphoe Muang. The distance of this route is about 70 kms. and takes at least 5 days of rafting, and due to much difference in water level at one point of the Pai River along this route, therefore, two rafts setting are required to change at this mentioned point.

3. From Amphoe Muang to the border of Thailand and Myanmar : Starting from Ban Huai Dua, Tambon Pha Bong, about 6 kms. from Amphoe Muang to the border at Ban Nam Phiang Din. Normally this section of Pai River is more enjoyable to cruise along by the long-tailed motor boat which only takes 2-3 hours returned trip or trekking on elephant back instead of rafting since the nature and scenery both sides are fascinated and beautiful.

Contact for boat cruise, accommodation and trekking through major hotels and resorts or travel agents in Mae Hong Son.

MAJOR EVENTS

Pai Sang Long Procession (แห่ปอยสังลอง)

This is in fact the celebration of novice ordination which the Thai Yai tribe people hold to be a highly meritorious occasion. Traditionally, the candidate-novice, his head cleanly shaven and wrapped with head-cloth in the Burmese style, will don a prince-like garment and put on valuable jewels and gems, and ride a horse or be carried over the shoulders of a man to the city shrine. Then he will visit abbots of various wats to beg for forgiveness. On the ordination eve, a procession of offerings and other necessary personal belongings will be paraded through the town streets and then placed at the monastery where the ordination will take place the next day. It is usually held during March-May before the Buddhist Rain Retreat period. Today the tribesmen are encouraged to hold several processions at the same time with the result that they have become a major tourist attraction.

Chong Para Procession (แห่จองพารา)

The Chong Para in the Thai Yai dialect means a castle made of wood, covered with colorful perforated papers and decorated with fruits, flags and lamps. It is placed in the courtyard of a house or a monastery as a gesture to welcome the Lord Buddha on his return from giving sermons to his mother in heaven, according to traditional belief. The rite is held during the post-Rain Retreat season from the full-moon day of the 11th Lunar month to the waxing-moon night of the same month.

Other activities to celebrate the occasion include dances where performers are dressed in animal costumes. This is based on the belief that during those long-gone days, both humans and the animal kingdom were equally joyful of the return of the Lord Buddha and therefore joined in a jubilant performance as tribute of the Enlightened One.

Bua Tong Blossom Festival (งานวันดอกบัวตองบาน)

Each year in November, the hillsides of Amphoe Khun Yuam and Amphoe Mae Sariang are filled with a host of golden Bua Tong blooms. As gay as a daisy and almost as large as a sunflower, the Bua Tong only blossoms for a month. This is enough reason for Mae Hong Son provincial to hold the Bua Tong Blossom Festival at Amphoe Khun Yuam every year from 1 November until 15 December.

At Amphoe Khun Yuam's Doi Mae U-Kho, the blossoms appear profusely. Finally, the golden blooms become part of the scene. Some specialists have classified these Bua Tong as weeds and because of this, they may be cleared to make way for cash crops. Fortunately a group of researchers have discovered the flower's insect-repellent properties. And perhaps that is why the Bua Tong, a symbol of Mae Hong Son, is still preserved on the hillsides.

Loi Krathong Festival (ประเพณีลอยกระทง)

Loi Krathong Festival is held on the full moon night in the month of November every year. Villagers make "Krathongs" to float in rivers. At Nong Chong Kham, various entertainments and a contest of large krathongs are held near the central pond. Lamps and candles are lit all around the area. Moreover, at Wat Phra That Doi Kong Mu, there is a ceremony of releasing candle-lit krathongs bound with balloons to the sky (known as "Loi Krathong Swan")
